Title: National Fish Habitat Board Leadership

Desired outcome(s): Board action on National Fish Habitat Board Leadership

Background: According to National Fish Habitat Board Bylaws, no chair shall serve more than 3 consecutive terms. Additionally, Bylaws state that the Chair shall be elected by the Board from among the state government representatives.

Kelly Hepler succeeded John Cooper of chair of the National Fish Habitat Board in May of 2008. He has served two successive two year terms. The current vice chair is not a state representative and thus cannot ascend to the role of chair.

Briefing Book Materials:

Charter and Bylaws